

GEOÉTICA GEOETHICS

Referência e financiamento: CIPSH, CCKF, FCT

OBJETIVOS

Abordar a contribuição de uma ética de responsabilidade para a integração das inovações tecnológicas numa perspetiva humanista.
Articular Geociências, Tecnologia e Humanidades, em torno da gestão das materialidades e das perceções culturais da realidade.

EQUIPA

- Luiz Oosterbeek
- Harold Sjursen
- Giuseppe di Capua
- Torbjorn Loden
- Nuno Madeira
- Luís Oliveira

RESULTADOS E PERSPETIVAS

- Edição de volume sobre Ética Global (Springer)
- Edição de volume contribuições da China e da Europa para uma Ética Global (Diogenes, Sage)
- Projeto de ensino de Ética em cursos de Tecnologia no IPT

DIOGENES

PUBLISHED UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL FOR PHILOSOPHY AND HUMAN SCIENCES WITH THE SUPPORT OF UNESCO

GLOBAL ETHICS

Torbjorn Loden and Luiz Oosterbeek
Torbjorn Loden
Giuseppe di Capua
Marianne Bastid-Bruguier
Halvor Eifring
Chun-chih Huang
Hans Ingar Røth
Jyrki Kallio
Jens Braarvig
Cate Sigurdsson
Sebastian Høsten-hao Liao
Zou Yun
Zohin Seonhegyi
Hsiung Ping-chen
Michael Palencia-Roth
Misha Tadd
Catherine Poujot
Daniel-Henri Pagnoux
Daniel-Henri Pagnoux
Riccardo Pozzo and Vania Virgili

Preface
The cultural traditions of China and the quest for a global ethic
Communication of ethics – across cultural boundaries
Cosmopolitanism and Global Ethics
Liberty and responsibility
The global ethics of emotions – what ancient Chinese philosophers can teach us
Confucian “Humanity” (ren 仁) as a resource for a global ethics
J.C. Chang and the Quest for a Global Ethic
The Dialogue between Confucianism and its Translations
Idea on Universal Ethics in Mahayana Buddhism
Chinese and western philosophical and ethical perspectives
Difference rather than incommensurability or sameness
All Things Are Like a Horse, or Radical Posthumanism: A Daoist Ethics for the Anthropocene and Beyond
Zhangji’s ethics: a reading of “In the Human World”
From fragile heritage to the fragility of heritage: diverse answers to pressing ethical and aesthetic questions
Shall children play? Evidence from arts in late imperial China
Nepantla, Cross-cultural Encounters, and Literature: Latin America, India, Japan
Variation of Yin and Yang in the Han: Implicit Mode and Substance
Divisions in Hsiangyang’s Commentary on the Deadling Spatial Boundaries, Social Frontiers: From the Visible to the Invisible in the Geographic, Economic, and Social Space of Present-Day Central Asia
Conversation with Daniel-Henri Pagnoux: Charif Majdalani
Conversation with Daniel-Henri Pagnoux: Louis-Philippe Eldemert
Social and Cultural Innovation: Research Infrastructures Tackling Migration

NUMBER
250
VOLUME 64
ISSUE 1-2

ISSN 0924-1921 journal.sagepub.com/home/dio

